Since its opening in 1974, beef and martinis have never gone out of style at this Palo Alto institution. The atmosphere is very clubby with fireplaces, dark wood, sports memorabilia, and plush leather booths tucked into the many nooks throughout the dining room. Famous for their prime rib, they also offer fresh seafood, lobster tail, shellfish, and of course their aged USDA prime graded steaks. The menu is supported by extensive award winning wine list making this steakhouse one of the best on the Peninsula. Let owners Galen and Aron Fletcher make your dining experience one to cherish and enjoy.
